MEETING SECOND QUARTER, CY-2013

a. The NRC accepted the Navy's notice of intent to conduct announced inspections. The Navy will continue to keep the NRC apprised of the ongoing fiscal situation and when this can go back to unannounced inspections.

b. The NRC requested more information concerning the alternate decommissioning schedule requests for Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey and SPAWAR. The Navy is working with the NRC with draft letters to minimize requests for further information.

c. The NRC provided an amendment to the MML to allow for the utilization of the electronic pocket dosimeter (EPD) as both a rate meter and a secondary dose monitoring device.

d. The NRC provided the 2013 biennial inspection report to the Navy.

e. The NRC accepted the Navy's response to the biennial inspection report.

5. The outgoing correspondence to the NRC during the past quarter was discussed by CAPT Davis-Urgo.

a. The Navy responded to the NRC 2013 biennial inspection report. The response provided future corrective actions related to decommissioning activities.

b. The Navy notified the NRC of an intent to extend administrative timeliness criteria for permitting activities at RASO during the furlough time period. This is primarily because of the large amount of renewals currently at RASO that are related to the new RAD-10.

c. The Navy requested a time extension for the submission of the Naval Research Laboratory and NSWC, Dahlgren decommissioning final status surveys. Although the bankrupt contractor has provided draft documents, they require many changes, and time is necessary to provide these changes.

6. (b) (6) and (b) (6) discussed the performance metrics associated with Naval Radioactive Materials Permit (NRMP) inspections and permit actions. These permit actions and inspection summaries are attached in enclosure (2).
